Professional Experience

Samuel Gmetro's legal representation includes individuals, privately held businesses and corporations, and charitable organizations. His practice primarily involves issues arising out of commercial contracts, regulatory issues, real estate transactions, and dealer/distributor agreements. Sam also has significant experience in Internet Marketing and Promotions Law, Sweepstakes Law and Fantasy Sports Law.

Sam's unique perspective and diverse experience as an attorney is the result of more than a decade of work in public safety as an EMT-Paramedic, Fire Safety Inspector and Arson Investigator. Sam also served as an intern with the Sheffield Lake Law Department and City Prosecutor's Office prior to joining Wegman Hessler.

Active in his church and in his community, Sam regularly volunteers with local legal clinics and other legal aid groups. His ability to understand each client's vision is how Sam has established himself as a vital member of Wegman Hessler's legal team.
